

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

 The fund will invest in global Private Equity funds that have achieved above-standard results over the long term – examples include KKR, EQT, CVC.

 The portfolio of Private Equity funds will be geographically diversified between USA (about 60%), Europe (about 35%) and rest of the world (about 5%)

 The Fund's strategy will focus primarily on buyout funds (investing in already-established companies). Part of the portfolio will also be allocated to Growth funds, and occasionally to Venture Capital or Private Credit.

Why invest in the Fund?

WIDE DIVERSIFICATION

We strive to select different groups of assets to the fund. This can guarantee us the portfolio diversification. The largest share of investments will be directed to the buyout strategy, investments in already established companies that generate profit and have a stable cash flow.

Distribution of strategies (target)

BEST MANAGERS

We select only the best managers for our Fund, who have been operating their PE funds in 1st and 2nd quartile for long time, which indicates their skills and the quality of management of these funds. These consistently deliver an appreciation of c.15% p.a.

Distribution of performance of PE funds (in % p.a.)

HIGHER YIELD

The Private Equity funds we select achieve significantly higher return compared to stock indices. At the same time, private equity bears significantly lower level of volatility compared to US or global equities, which brings an attractive risk-return ratio.
